COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description:
- This course builds upon the skills developed in Composition I
- It provides further instruction in the planning, organization, and writing of essays
- It includes methods of library research including information retrieval from electronic sources, and emphasizes writing of the research paper and the paper of literary interpretation
- The reading includes selections from at least two forms of literature
- This course partially satisfies the writing requirements outlined in the General Education Requirements. Credit is not given for both ENC 1102 and ENC 1122H.

Course Goals
- This course continues to work on your ENC 1101 skills
- Here you will work with pieces of literature, and your papers will deal with the subjects these pieces discuss
- In this course you will write reader/response and argumentative papers, and you will also learn to use the techniques of multi-source research to further support your argument. Thus, you will be using the skills you learned in Composition I, expanding on them, and also polishing your reading and critical thinking skills on both an individual and group setting

Course Prerequisite: Completion of ENC 1101 with a grade of “C” or better

IMPORTANT DATES

Course Dates:
- 05/20 - 07/12/2019

Drop Date:
- 05/24/2019

Withdrawal Date:
- 06/20/2019

Financial Aid Dates:

Netiquette:
- Check your email often
- Check your calendar often
- Check the Module Home pages under the “Course Content” tab
- I take at least a week per assignment, and sometimes a little longer to grade if too many papers are submitted at the same time
- I am available via email, so never hesitate to contact me if you have a question
- Please be civil in all your emails, discussion posts, and all online class interactions
INSTRUCTOR’S EXPECTATIONS
In order to be eligible to pass this course, you must be able to:

- Read instructions on your own
- Follow instructions on your own
- Read all assigned texts in their entirety ahead of time
- Log into our online class regularly and on time
- This course includes a heavy reading load
- This course includes a heavy writing load
- You are not here simply to collect “points” and I am not here simply to hand them out. The assignments I have created here each work on specific skills which I feel you will find useful in other SPC courses and in life outside college. That is why there is nothing else you can “do to make up the points [you] missed.”
- The only way to get a shot at a passing grade ‘C’ is to complete the assignments’ basic requirements. For a possible ‘A’ you need to work much harder. If you are not ready to do that, you should withdraw from this course
- Please budget your time accordingly to meet deadlines
- Please submit well ahead of the closeout time to avoid getting locked out
- I do not accept submissions as email attachments
- No makeups are allowed, and I do not accept late submissions*

*except for the following extenuating, well-documented circumstances

- Appearance in court for jury duty or any other reason
- Service in the Armed Forces
- Multi-day hospitalization (yours, not a relative’s)
- Receiving the assistance of our Accessibility Services

Academic Honesty:
- www.spcollege.edu/academichonesty
- Cheating during tests or intentional plagiarism in essays/papers will not be permitted. Cheating includes having another student plan, or write your paper
• A plagiarized paper will receive a grade of ‘0’ which may lead to an ‘F’ in the class
• Cites such as enotes.com, 123helpme.com, study.com and others like them are not appropriate to use in college-level writing and will result in ‘0’ points for the assignment
• The student will use Standard American English

Turnitin:
• All submitted documents are run through the Turnitin Originality Check. If it detects any inappropriate outside citations, such as the ones mentioned above, the assignment will not receive any credit

Student Survey of Instruction:
• The Student Survey of Instruction is administered in courses each semester. It is designed to improve the quality of instruction at St. Petersburg College. All student responses are confidential and anonymous and will be used solely for the purpose of performance improvement after the class is over

This certification mark recognizes that this course met Quality Matters Review Standards.

Course Objectives:

1. The student will effectively plan and write compositions which reinforce the skills established in Composition I by:
   A. writing essays that support and develop a central thesis.
   B. using appropriate rhetorical and language skills in all compositions.

2. The student will comprehend and interpret literary selections by:
   A. understanding and identifying relevant literary elements, such as plot, structure, narration, point of view, setting, character, theme and symbolism.
   B. using textual evidence to interpret and evaluate a given literary selection.

3. The student will use the library effectively by:
   A. locating sources through the college’s online library and other electronic sources.
   B. retrieving sources, either print or electronic.

4. The student will incorporate information from sources appropriately by:
   A. managing and recording information from specified sources.
   B. summarizing, paraphrasing, quoting and combining source information effectively.
   C. writing papers which integrate the student's own words and ideas with those of primary and/or secondary sources.
   D. using parenthetical references within the paper to credit information from primary and secondary sources.
   E. preparing a works cited list of the sources used in the research paper.

5. The student will retrieve information from sources effectively and efficiently by:
   A. selecting the most appropriate investigative methods.
   B. constructing and refining search strategies.
   C. accessing information using a variety of strategies.

6. The student will evaluate sources including electronic sources by:
   A. summarizing the main idea extracted from the information.
   B. articulating and applying basic criteria for evaluating both the information and its sources.
   C. synthesizing main ideas to construct new concepts.
   D. comparing new knowledge with prior knowledge to determine the value added, contradictions, or other unique characteristics of the information.
   E. validating understanding and interpretation of the information through discourse with other individuals, subject-area experts, and/or practitioners.
   F. deciding whether the initial query should be revised.
